DUKE'S WAIKIKI HOSTS 3rd ANNUAL WATERMAN'S RELAY RACE

HONOLULU – May 6, 2010 - Honoring the traditions of one of Hawaii's greatest athletes, Duke's Waikiki is holding its 3rd annual Waterman's Relay race on Saturday, May 8, 2010, at 8 a.m. Taking place in the waters fronting Duke's Waikiki, teams of three will compete in a relay consisting of 12 600-meter laps. Teams will cover the out and back course through the surf zone and transition at the beach in this spectator friendly event. Late registration fee of $25 per person will be accepted on the day of the event at Duke's Waikiki.

The teams of three are split into the following five divisions:

- Combined team member ages of 119 and under
- Combined age of 120 and over
- Mixed gender
- Family - at least two of the team must be immediate family members
- Stand-up paddleboard

Following the race, Duke's Waikiki is holding a breakfast award ceremony where prizes will be given to the overall top finishers and winners from each division.

For more information, call Duke's Waikiki at 922-2268.

Named after Duke Kahanamoku, Olympic gold medalist and father of modern day surfing, Duke's Waikiki proudly perpetuates the long-standing tradition of water sports in Hawaii. The annual Waterman's Relay and the Duke's Ocean Mile Swim are just a few examples of the many ocean-sporting events that take place at Duke's Waikiki throughout the year.
