HULA GRILL KICKS OFF MAUI ONION FESTIVAL WITH BEER PAIRINGS GUEST CHEF DINNER

KAANAPALI, MAUI (April 19, 2010) – Slice right into this year’s Maui Onion Festival at Hula Grill’s 3rd Annual Beer Pairings Guest Chef Dinner. Hosted by Hula Grill Kaanapali’s Executive Chef Scott McGill, the Beer Pairings Guest Chef Dinner will be served on Friday, April 30 at 6:00 p.m.

The winner of last year’s Maui Onion Festival recipe contest, Chef David Paul of David Paul’s Island Grill, will be helping to create a scrumptious five-course dinner featuring Maui Onions that will be paired perfectly with specialty beers from Maui Brewing Co., along with Hula Grill’s own Barefoot Brew.

The five-course dinner and beer pairings is $69.95 per person. The event will be Aloha attire. Seating is limited and reservations are recommended

The Annual Maui Onion Festival is dedicated to the cultivation and promotion of the world-famous Maui Kula Onion, believed to be the sweetest onion in the all the world. The festival has been a Maui tradition since 1990, and is attended by thousands of residents and visitors each year.

Hula Grill’s beachside bistro is located in Whalers Village in Kaanapali and features award-winning oceanfront dining at its best with Hawaii Regional Seafood. The open-air dining rooms are open for dinner daily from 5 to 9:30 p.m. Also, the Barefoot Bar offers an all-day menu from 11 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. and cocktails from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. For reservations, call (808) 667-6636 or for additional information, visit www.hulagrill.com.
