CURRENT AFFAIRS ACQUIRES HAWAII SPEAKERS.NET

State's Largest Speakers Bureau Represents Talent From Hawaii and U.S. Mainland

HONOLULU, HI (November 10, 2009) – Current Affairs, Hawaii's premier event planning and production company, has expanded its scope of services by acquiring the state's largest speakers bureau. HawaiiSpeakers.Net represents more than 70 professionals from Hawaii and the U.S. Mainland, including celebrities, consultants, futurists, musicians, Hawaiian cultural experts, sports figures, comedians, and others, available for conferences, conventions, training and incentive meetings.

"We are so pleased to offer HawaiiSpeakers.Net," said Mary Ann Yeh, Director of HawaiiSpeakers.Net. "This service will fulfill not only the needs of Current Affairs' own Clients, but also those of the larger professional community that are embracing the value of meetings and events as being a primary force in growing their businesses through education, motivation and personal development."

The speakers featured on HawaiiSpeakers.Net are well versed in a broad spectrum of topics, including Hawaii's sense of place; leadership and motivation; health and wellness; global business; humor; and contemporary issues; among others. For a complete list of topic areas, visit <http://hawaiispeakers.net>. Examples of available Hawaii speakers are Wally "Famous" Amos, Pam Chambers, Alice Inoue and Senator Fred Hemmings. Mainland speakers include ABC Sports' Larry Beil, Comedian Ben Stein and five-time NFL All Pro Brian Holloway.

For more information or to request a speaker, call (808) 732-6011 or visit <http://hawaiispeakers.net>.
