GET LOST AT KUALOA RANCH

Ka'a'awa, Hawaii (January 29, 2010) – History, hills and Hollywood all in Hawaii! Kualoa Ranch has been the backdrop to one of the hottest television series, LOST, since its debut in 2004. With the anticipated premiere of the final season next month, Kualoa Ranch offers guests the opportunity to get a sneak peek at some of LOST's filmed locations with its Movie and Ranch Tour. What better way to relive some of television's most memorable moments!

"It's hard to believe that it has been six years since LOST started filming at Kualoa Ranch," said John Morgan, president of Kualoa Ranch. "The Movie and Ranch tour has become the most popular tour of the ranch and proving that guests want to get a sneak peek of the LOST locations."

The Movie and Ranch Tour is a one-hour narrated tour across Kualoa Ranch and into gorgeous Ka'a'awa Valley to experience where many of Hollywood's biggest blockbuster movies and television shows have been filmed, including Jurassic Park, Godzilla, Windtalkers, and Pearl Harbor. The price for the individual tour is $21; full and half day and kamaaina packages are also available.

Established in 1850, Kualoa Ranch is a 4,000-acre working cattle ranch, spread from the steep mountain cliffs to the sea. Family-owned and operated, Kualoa's mission is to be a role model as stewards of the land by preserving, protecting and enhancing Hawaii's natural beauty and culture, while developing recreational and agricultural enterprises compatible with the environment.
